INTRODUCING

A NEW PODCAST SERIES SPONSORED BY THE WAR RELATED ILLNESS & INJURY STUDY CENTER

Veterans' Health Matters, a new podcast series sponsored by the War Related Illness and Injury Study Center (WRIISC), offers clinicians, Veterans, and caregivers information on post deployment care, and also offers tools on effective patient-provider communication, various functional and integrative medicine approaches, along with exercise, that can improve the care of our nation's Veterans. During every episode you'll hear subject matter experts weigh in on these topics and also talk about services the WRIISC provides because every Veteran's health really does matter.
